

Business and Investment Opportunities in South Africa's Information & Communication Technology ("ICT") Market and Newly Deregulated Telecom Industry

Presented by:
Azania Holdings International Inc.
and
the New York Software Industry Association

For further information:
email: forums@azaniainc.com
or web: azaniaconferences.com

Space is Limited

Date: Thursday, February 17, 2005
Time: 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM
Venue: Information Builders
2 Penn Plaza, 24th Floor
Building facing 7th Ave on 32nd next door to Madison Square Garden
Admission: Free to NYSIA Members,
$20 for non-members

Ms. Mona Davids, Co-Founder & CEO, Azania Holdings International Inc. will lead a panel of speakers that include representatives from the U.S. Department of Commerce, Trade & Investment South Africa, the South African Chamber of Commerce in America and industry stakeholders who will discuss business and investment opportunities to export goods and services from the United States and/or partner with South African companies.

Who Should Attend:

IT Companies, VoIP companies, Broadband/cable companies, WiFi companies, Software developers, Consultants, Programmers, System administrators, Entrepreneurs, Start-ups, Small and medium size businesses owners, Investors, Venture capitalists, CEO's, CIO's, COO's and CTO's.

To register by phone: Call +1 212 475 4503

To register online: www.nysia.org

Registration closes: Thursday, February 17, 12:00 PM